

Season's Greetings!

As the end of the year approaches, everyone at Mid-America Packaging wishes you and your employees a happy holiday season! Our team would like to express our thanks for trusting our team to get every job done successfully.

As the end of the year draws near our team will be investing some time in trainings and growth opportunities.

Please note our offices and services will be closed November 24th & 25th. As well as December 26th and 30th.

Wishing you and your team a happy and prosperous holiday season!
